HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.’ And now I have told you this before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe.”

Following the resurrection, Jesus spent time preparing His disciples for His taking leave of them. They were to be pleased that He would go, and then would receive a special gift, the Advocate, the Paraclete. The Spirit would come to teach and remind.

Jesus’ leaving would not be an absence, but lead to a greater presence. His disciples, and we as missionary disciples, would become dwelling places of God’s Spirit. His gift is ours, provided we love Him.

May the departure of Jesus, the ascension, prepare us for the special moment and allow us to be truly dwelling places for the Lord. He comes to reside with me. He is present in me and in others. I ask the gift of discernment to discover His abiding presence with me today.

May Poor Box: Newman Center at George Washington University

The Center encourages students to encounter Jesus Christ primarily at Sunday, but also deepen their relationship with our Lord through daily Eucharistic Adoration, Mass and Confession. Bible studies, apologetic courses, retreats and works of charity also give opportunities for students to deepen their knowledge and love of their Catholic faith. Your support will be greatly appreciated.
