HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Jesus said to his disciples: ‘I have much more to tell you, but you cannot hear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth... Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.’ “...because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.”

Our faith today tells us two things. The first is the existence of the Trinity, as the passage of St. John speaks of Father and Spirit referred to by Jesus himself. The second is that the mystery of the Trinity is not something distant from us, but it is within, and has been ‘poured out into our hearts.

Maybe I can bless myself more reverently as I proclaim my faith in the mystery of God. When I see an athlete rapidly make the sign of the cross, may it remind me, not of faith, but of what He has poured into my heart.

When I am looking for direction on a GPS or map, may I be reminded that it is the promised spirit of Jesus who will guide me.

When I am in doubt, making a decision, may I ask the Spirit, the gift of the Father and Son, to assist me. I cannot fully understand this mystery, but can acknowledge it and use it well.

May Poor Box: Newman Center at George Washington University

The Center encourages students to encounter Jesus Christ primarily on Sunday, but also deepen their relationship with our Lord through daily Eucharistic Adoration, Mass and Confession. Bible studies, apologetic courses, retreats and works of charity also give opportunities for students to deepen their knowledge and love of their Catholic faith. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

Volunteer Opportunities: Little Sisters of the Poor is a long-term care facility for the elderly poor. We are looking for some loving volunteers that can help with transportation or clerical work. We are located at 4200 Harewood Road NE, Washington, DC 20017. Memorial Day at Catholic Cemeteries

During this Year of Mercy, “we are called to remember everyone, even those who no one remembers,” says Pope Francis. “We remember those who sacrificed their lives to serve others. We especially entrust to the Lord, those who have left us during the past year.” On Memorial Day, come offer a spiritual work of mercy and pray in loving memory of family, friends, and fellow citizens who have given their lives for our freedom and now experience their destiny in the love of Christ. Special outdoor Masses will be held at 10am on Monday, May 30 on the sacred ground of the Catholic cemeteries of the Archdiocese of Washington, including Gate of Heaven Cemetery, 13801 Georgia Ave., Silver Spring, MD, (301) 871-6500; Mt. Olivet Cemetery, 1300 Bladensburg Rd., NE., (202) 399-3000.

Witness to Life Mass and Procession

Pope St. John Paul II stated, “A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world.” With the construction of a new Planned Parenthood abortion facility in northeast DC well underway, a great prayer for life is desperately needed in our nation’s capital. Please join us at 10am on Saturday, June 18 at Holy Name Parish (920 11th Street, NE) for a Mass and procession as we witness to the dignity of every human life. Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Barry Knestout, Auxiliary Bishop of Washington, with Msgr. Charles Pope as homilist. We will then process to the Planned Parenthood location while praying the Rosary and pause at the site for additional prayers. In our efforts to promote the dignity of life and oppose abortion, we must answer Pope Francis’s call to share the Lord’s mercy by providing support for mothers in need. Please bring donations for the Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center (diapers, onesies, baby blankets, and sleepers). The Papal Fiat will be present at 9:45am to collect them before Mass! Please contact the archdiocesan Department of Life Issues at yaot@adw.org or (301) 853-4555 with any questions.

Quo Vadis Camp: The 8th Annual Quo Vadis Camp for high school-aged men will be held at Mount St. Mary’s Seminary from June 26-29. The four-day camp includes daily Mass, prayer, talks, sports, and much more. Registration is now open at www.dcpriest.org, and questions may be directed to the Office of Priest Vocations at vocations@adw.org or 202-636-9020.
