HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Beloved. Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it and that from infancy you have known the sacred scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.”

How well do I know the scriptures? I am aware of many events in the life of Christ. I am aware of His teaching, His miracles, His dying and rising. Yes, I know some important things found in the bible.

Most of us have copies of the bible in our homes. Many record their family histories, of sacraments celebrated. A family history accompanies the history of salvation. However for many, the book has become dusty and our faith rusty. Paul encourages Timothy reminding him that it is the word inspired by God to do four things – teach, defend, correct and train – to be competent and equipped for good work.

I wonder where I can join a bible study group? I need a book to help me understand the scriptures. I want to accept this important recommendation Paul gave to Timothy. I need to know the scriptures. St. Jerome, who translated the scriptures into Latin, teaches that if we do not know the scriptures, we do not know Christ.

Let’s begin... The bible is allergic to dust, I polish my knowledge to get rid of the rust.

Thank you all for participating in the three-day Eucharistic Adoration and closing Mass earlier this month. The 121st Anniversary of the First Eucharistic Congress at St. Patrick was truly a great celebration in showing our love to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.
God Bless, Msgr. Sal
